Description:

Universitas Indonesia provides public access to buildings, monuments or natural heritage landscapes of cultural significance. Universitas Indonesia has buildings from the Dutch colonial era. One of UI's architectural heritage is the Faculty of Medicine's building on Salemba Raya, Central Jakarta. The building can be accessed via various modes of public transportation, like the Transjakarta Bus with direct access from Salemba UI bus stop or by the KRL Commuterline via Cikini Station. There is also a pedestrian walkway leading towards this historical building. UI also cooperates with Gowes Corporation in providing sustainable, emission-free, and environmentally friendly vehicles. There are bikes and electric scooters that can be rented for free for a few hours on the campus.
