UI Team for Social Engagement in collaboration with Faculty of Humanities Social Engagement Team established museum in Bali Province

Performance of Kethoprak DoKar (Lecturers and Employees), Faculty of Humanities, University of Indonesia

The screenshot shows the Makara Art Center website. The main content area features a large photograph of a group of performers in traditional South Sulawesi attire on a stage. The background of the stage has a large, illuminated logo that reads "Santia". To the right of the photograph, there is a calendar widget for December 2020 showing "No Events". Below the calendar is a "Videos widget" with two video thumbnails: "Multicultural Jazz Concert" and "Resital Musik Simak Dialog Dalam Musik".

South Sulawesi cultural performances

Description :

The Community Service Team Faculty of Humanities Universitas Indonesia collaborates with the Research and Community Directorate Universitas Indonesia and Geriana Kauh Indigenous People to inaugurate the "Sanghyang Dedari Giri Amertha Museum" in Geriana Kauh Traditional Village, Bali. The community-based museum is expected to be a forum for documentation and preservation of Sanghyang Dedari, Lontar and other Balinese cultures.

In addition to the establishment of the museum in Bali, the Faculty of Humanities UI in collaboration with lecturers, employees, and students produces the performance of Kethoprak DoKar (Lecturers and Employees) with the play "Karmaphala Tumapel".

Universitas Indonesia collaborates with The University of Indonesia South Sulawesi Student Association (IMMS), the Sulawesi Gunadarma Student Association and the South Sulawesi Student Association (IKAMI) cab. Depok to hold a South Sulawesi cultural performance.
