Description :

Universitas Indonesia has an existence of participatory bodies to recognize and engage local stakeholders, including local residents, local government, local private, local civil society representatives. University is an important pillar of state administration and the ideals of a democratic society. It is necessary to emphasize the universal value of human rights as the foundation of all programs related to civil rights, particularly for vulnerable communities. As well as health assistance for people who are in areas of conflict or disaster. Strengthening and collaborating with the government, which in this case is the central government along with local governments, to operate an accountable, clean government system that is also free from corruption, collusion and nepotism. Due to regional autonomy that has resulted in decentralized financial policies, cooperation between academics and legal / public ethics experts is needed to collaborate further with village / city officials so that professional and transparent implementation of village and city governance can be achieved.
