Description :

Universitas Indonesia provides a neutral and safe platform for all groups, especially those in the political field, in the form of forums and discussions. This forum allows the entire community, students, and lecturers to discuss together openly, freely and safely.

By inaugurating the UI Nationality Forum, UI provides this forum in order to discuss national issues such as politics, economic competitiveness, and diversity. In addition, UI also provides media for all civitas academia of UI to open various kinds of public discussions related to politics, such as activities conducted by ILUNI UI and CEPP UI.
