TENTANG

PENETAPAN INDIKATOR PERILAKU KUNCI NILAI-NILAI BUDAYA
UNIVERSITAS INDONESIA

Description:

Universitas Indonesia have a policy commitment to no forced labour, no modern slavery and no human trafficking, and no child labour.

The Human Resource Management in UI is based on professionalism, equity, and equal rights that do not discriminate people based on their ethnicity, race, religion and gender. It also provides equal rights to people with disabilities as written in Article 2 of Rector Decree No. 33/2018 concerning Human Resource Management. Universitas Indonesia also protects its workers from discrimination and harassment in the work environment as described in Article 62 of Rector Decree No. 33/2018.

Equity and Dignity, which is one of the values of Universitas Indonesia, also acts as the basis of the equal rights and anti-discrimination that are implemented on the campus.

Equity is demonstrated by giving everyone in Universitas Indonesia the equal and non-discriminative chances and treatments in doing their tasks, including the development of academic and other activities, and are not based on the decision that does not weigh on the disparity of race, ethnicity, religion, gender, marital status, age, handicap, or sexual orientation. Universitas Indonesia opens the chance for handicapped people to work in UI.

Universitas Indonesia is committed to treating everyone equally with respect, humanity, obedience to ethics, decency, and appropriateness in every situation.
